Notice of Privacy Practices

According to the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA), this notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully. This document may be updated without notice so please review it each time you visit us. A copy of this statement is always available upon request.

All information revealed by you in a counseling or therapy session and most information placed in your counseling/therapy file (all medical records or other individually identifiable health information held or disclosed in any form [electronic, paper, or oral]) is considered “protected health information” by HIPAA. As such, your protected health information cannot be distributed to anyone else without your express informed and voluntary written consent or authorization. The exception to this are defined immediately below. Additional information regarding your rights as a client can be found in Consent for Treatment.

Use or disclosure of the following protected health information does not require your consent or authorization:

1. Uses and disclosures required by law.
2. Uses and disclosures about victims of child and elder abuse and neglect.
3. Uses and disclosures for health and oversight activities – like correcting records or correcting records already disclosed.
4. Uses and disclosures for judicial or administrative proceedings – like a case where you are claiming malpractice or a breach of ethics.
5. Uses and disclosures for law enforcement purposes – like if you intend to harm yourself or others.
6. Uses and disclosures for research purposes – like using client information in research; always maintaining client confidentiality.
7. Uses and disclosures to avert a serious threat to health or safety.
8. Uses and disclosures for Workers’ Compensation claims – like the basic information obtained in therapy/counseling as a result of your Worker’s Compensation claim.

Your Rights as a Counseling/Therapy Client under HIPAA

- As a client, you have the right to see your counseling/therapy file. Psychotherapy notes are afforded special privacy protection under the HIPAA regulations and are excluded from this right.
- As a client, you have the right to receive a copy of your counseling/therapy file. Psychotherapy notes are afforded special privacy protection under the HIPAA regulations and are excluded from this right. You will be required to pay any copying fees at $1.00 per page.
- As a client, you have the right to request amendments to your counseling/therapy file.
- As a client, you have the right to receive a history of all disclosures of protected health information. You will be required to pay any copying fees at $1.00 per page.
- As a client, you have the right to restrict the use and disclosure of your protected health information for the purposes of treatment, payment, and operations. If you choose to release any protected health information, you will be required to sign a Release of Information form detailing exactly to whom and what information you wish disclosed.
- As a client, you have the right to register a complaint with the Secretary of Health and Human Services if you feel your rights, herein explained, have been violated.

Prior to counseling or therapy, you will receive an exact duplicate of these pages and your Consent to Treatment—both for your personal records. It will be necessary for you to sign a certificate indicating that you have received, read, and understand both documents. This certificate will be placed in your counseling/therapy file. Please do not sign the certificate if you do not understand any part of the HIPAA Client’s Rights Statement and the Consent for Treatment. Your counselor or therapist will be happy to explain these documents further.

For internal complaints regarding your counselor/therapists compliance with the HIPAA regulations, please contact Lexington Baptist Church Counseling Center’s HIPAA administrator, Eva Lynn Hill, Office Manager. She can be reached at 803-808-5222.

LBCC COUNSELING AGREEMENT AND CONSENT FOR TREATMENT

PLEASE COMPLETE AND SIGN THIS PAGE AND GIVE IT TO YOUR COUNSELOR WITH YOUR INTAKE PAPERWORK.

Confidentiality

Information disclosed in this intake packet and within counseling sessions will be kept in strictest confidence unless the following situations occur: 1) an individual's intent to harm himself, 2) an individual's intent to harm others, and 3) any matter that by law must be reported.

Relationships

In accordance to the ethics code of therapists' licensing bodies, a therapist will never have a sexual relationship with a client. Any breach of this policy should be reported to the therapist's licensing body and the Director of LBCC immediately. Addresses of licensing bodies are posted in the LBCC reception area.

Payment

Clients must make payment prior to each session in the plastic sleeve at the office desk. As a small non-profit counseling center, we must minimize the costs of billing. Therapists are instructed to reframe from scheduling the next session if payment is not deposited as outlined. Until a client's insurance coverage can be verified, he or she will be responsible for the full amount. We are only able to accept cash or personal checks. There will be a $25 charge for returned checks.

All appointments that are cancelled without 24 hours notice will automatically be charged to the client for the full amount, as insurance companies do not feel accountable for missed appointments. Full payment will also be charged to church members who do not give 24 hours notice.

Appointments

Appointments are made at times reserved exclusively for you. If you must cancel, you are requested to do so no less than 24 hours in advance. Cancellation calls made after hours are acceptable and preferred by leaving a voicemail message in the appropriate counselor's voicemail box. Except for emergencies, you will be billed for appointments missed without sufficient notice. Appointment times are scheduled in 50 minute blocks and we do our best to stay on schedule. Initial appointments will be scheduled for 80 minutes for the same fee. All clients are asked to pay the therapy fee before each session.

Phone Calls

In an effort to provide quality-counseling services, LBCC has a voicemail system in place to take calls in the event we are unable to answer your call. In addition, our confidential voicemail system can be accessed 24 hours a day. Cancellation calls made after normal business hours are acceptable and preferred by leaving a voicemail message in the appropriate counselor's voicemail box. Messages left in voicemail will be addressed as soon as possible and emergency and present client's calls take priority. Emergency phone calls should be placed through the center's emergency number which is accessed by calling (803) 808-5222, extension 8.

Informed Consent

The client has the right to receive services regardless of race, creed, color, physical or mental handicap. Since counseling is a cooperative process, it is in the best interest of the client to play an active role in therapy and regularly review treatment goals and progress with his or her counselor. The client has the right to refuse services or terminate therapy at any time. As in all medical and psychological treatment, no guarantees can be made regarding treatment outcomes.

Supervision/Consultation

In order to provide quality services, counselors at LBCC have a system of peer supervision and consultation about clinical and legal issues that arise in ongoing therapy. Our purpose is to use available expertise to best counsel our clients. Of course these consults are held in strictest confidence and every effort is made to restrict the identity of each individual. Signing this consent is voluntary; however, your counselor reserves the right to refer you to another therapist outside of our center if at any point your counselor thinks that quality care is not being provided.

Prayer

We are a Biblically-based counseling center and believe that the Holy Spirit is available at our petition to be our Counselor. We may ask if you would allow us to pray with you and we will be praying regularly for each of our clients. Please feel free to discuss your feelings with us about your desire for prayer in your sessions. And I will ask the Father, and He will give you another Counselor to be with you forever... the Spirit of Truth. – John 14:16-17
But when He, the Spirit of Truth, comes, He will guide you into all truth. – John 16:13

I acknowledge that I have received and read Lexington Baptist Church Counseling Center's Consent for Treatment Statement and HIPAA Client's Rights (version 03/03). I further acknowledge that I seek and consent to treatment with the staff of Lexington Baptist Church Counseling Center. My signature below confirms that I understand and accept all the information contained in the aforementioned statements. I have also read and received a copy of the "Fees for Additional Requests" for service.

Fees for Additional Requests

Copies - $1.00 per page for copying any records.

Written Documents – One half of the standard session rate ($40.00) per hour for any written documents requested by clients, such as affidavits, summaries/letters to teachers or legal professionals. The exception is a written excuse for work or school for attendance purposes.

Consultation – Special phone call consultations and staffing such as collaborating with lawyers, DSS workers, or Guardian Ad Litem, require significant time and attention. Time spent will be prorated at one-half of the standard session rate ($40) per hour.

Meetings – Attendance at any meetings held away from LBCC site will be assessed at the client's regular session charge per hour including travel time. The mileage fee of 44.5 cents per mile will also be added.

Court Appearances – While our counselors do not accept clients who desire testimony in court, we will comply when subpoenaed. The entire day will be designated at $80 per hour (8 hours), totaling $640/day plus travel expenses at 44.5 cents per mile.

Please give your counselor at least one week's notice if you require such services and pay in full in advance since insurance companies often do not cover such request.

INSURANCE

Lexington Baptist Church Counseling Center will be glad to file your insurance for you. However, fees for sessions are the ultimate responsibility of the client if the insurance company does not pay as expected.

Clients are responsible for verifying their insurance coverage. The following information is to assist you in being aware of what information needs to be collected before filing a claim.

1. The intake form must be filled out completely. All insurance information must be included as well as a copy of both sides of your insurance card.
2. The insurance-related releases on page 3 of the intake packet must be signed and dated.
3. To verify your coverage, call the 800 number of your insurance company to request specific coverage information. (If there are several phone numbers listed on the back of your card, call the one associated with benefits or mental health.)

Ask the following:

- Do I have mental health coverage? _____
- Does it require me to meet a deductible? _____ If so, amount of deductible _____.
- Have I met it? _____
- Does it cover services rendered by a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist (LMFT)—Robin Temples? _____ OR a Licensed Independent Social Worker (LISW-CP)— Sarah Rogers? _____ OR a Licensed Professional Counselors (LPC)— Angie Lamp, Lisa Smallwood or Kelly Weaver? _____
- Must the therapist I see be on a preferred provider list? _____
- Is my therapist (Robin, Sarah, Angie, Lisa or Kelly) on that list? _____
- What is my required co-payment or co-insurance? _____
- Must sessions be pre-certified? _____ If insurance representative inquires reason for counseling, give general category of stress. If the therapist must start the pre-certification, what number must be called to do this? _____
- If sessions are approved, what is the authorization number? _____ Number of sessions approved: _____ Start Date: _____ End Date: _____
- To what address should my claim be sent?

4. If you have questions or need assistance, please call the office (808-5222) and leave a message for the Office Manager (extension 5).

Please return a copy of this form with your paperwork. Also we need a copy of the front and back of your insurance card.
